

Fly Away

Jacob Sartorius

Cool, aye

I'd love to be the one to break your heart
But someone else is taking up the spot
It's my fault I know I took too long for you and now you're gone
Everything was right, but I was wrong

But I don't want another broken promise
Changed myself for you yeah baby I'm just being honest
Look at all the stars
Look at all the comets
Then look in the mirror
I should be right there beside ya

(Yeah)

Don't fly away from me
If you say that you love me
Lift my feet off the ground
Don't fly away from me
If you say that you love me
Lift my feet off the ground

Love to be the one to read your mind (read your mind)
But that is not a special skill of mine
Lately I've been feelin' insignificant I don't know why (I don't know, I don't know)
Listen to me read between the lines

And understand what I've been sayin'
Nothin' been the same since I saw you
Done with all the lies yeah it's all true
And I don't know what they sayin'
Know you've been dreaming about me
Like every second you sleeping

It's getting too late I just spilled my cup
When you done with him just hit me up yeah
And I know that we got time to grow
But sometimes when you know you know yeah
(Just don't, just don't)

Don't fly away from me
If you say that you love me
Lift my feet off the ground
Don't fly away from me
If you say that you love me
Lift my feet off the ground
