

Hey, Hello, Goodbye

Jacob Sartorius

Bro this one's crazy
Yo, you got the lighter?

Hey, hello, goodbye, runaway, get high
Talking to a bunch of people, I don't even really like
It's just another night, where I don't feel alright
I know I'm telling lies when I say that I'm fine

Everybody's fake (uh), I've come to the conclusion
That I do not wanna stay (stay), these conversations lead me
To a really shitty place (yeah), every word you say (say)
It's all just a game (game), that I ain't tryna play (hell nah)

I'm lonely, nobody to hold me
All my emotions are killing me slowly
I'm so lonely, nobody to hold me
All my emotions are killing me slowly

Hey, hello, goodbye, runaway, get high
Talking to a bunch of people, I don't even really like
It's just another night, where I don't feel alright
I know I'm telling lies when I say that I'm fine

Yeah, pointless chit chat, I don't wanna waste time
Fuck this kickback, damn
This shit's so whack, I don't even feel right
Me too, fuck that, yeah
Thought about it, nobody here is that interesting
If I'm being honest, they're scrolling Instagram

I'm lonely, nobody to hold me
All my emotions are killing me slowly
I'm so lonely, nobody to hold me
All my emotions are killing me slowly

Hey, hello, goodbye, runaway, get high
Talking to a bunch of people, I don't even really like
It's just another night, where I don't feel alright
I know I'm telling lies when I say that I'm fine
Hey, hello, goodbye, runaway, get high
Talking to a bunch of people, I don't even really like
It's just another night, where I don't feel alright
I know I'm telling lies when I say that I'm fine

Say that I'm fine, yeah, yeah
When I say that I'm fine
I'm lying, I'm lying
I'm lying when I say that I'm fine
I'm lying, I'm lying
When I say that I'm fine
When I say that I'm fine, I'm lying
When I say that I'm fine
