Jacob Sartorius

Rest my head on my pillow
Turn off the lights
Right before I fall asleep
Send you that face with the heart eyes
Tell you goodnight, yeah
Hope I see you in my dreams

But I still want to say
And I know its late
But I miss your smile
When you brush the hair off your face
And you should know

You're always the last text
That I send before bed
'Cause it's you that's
In my head, in my head, in my head
All night and all day
You're always the first thing
Every single morning
That I think of
In my head, in my head, in my head
All night and all day, you're my last text, yeah

Didn't know I was falling
'Til I hit the ground
Yeah, you caught me by surprise
But I can't control these butterflies I got, no
Couldn't catch 'em if I tried

Still got so much to say
Hope you understand
I love how you wrote
My name in the palm of your hand
And you should know

You're always the last text
That I send before bed
'Cause it's you that's
In my head, in my head, in my head
All night and all day
You're always the first thing
Every single morning
That I think of
In my head, in my head, in my head
All night and all day

You're my last text, my first love, my day one girl
My heart beat, my whole wide world, yeah
My best friend, perfection, my everything
And you can show all your friends that you're taken
When I send you those three words tonight
Tonight, and you should know

You're always the last text

In my head, in my head, in my head
All night and all day
Every single morning
That I think of
All night and all day, you're my last text
