

Luv

Jacob Sartorius

You say you're just waiting for the right time
Stay up with you all night, talking 'bout our past lives
You say you like waiting up till dawn
'Cause all the city's asleep, I see you in the moonlight

Then it all comes out late
When you say you don't care how long it takes
You just wanna be loved, hey so do I, yeah
Real love, that's hard to find
It takes two hearts to break one
But even in the dark, three words might save us
You just wanna be loved, hey so do I

You say life is almost like a movie (uh, cut)
You like running far from home, like keeping me on my toes
I found that there's no one like you, your heart's really made of gold
Who knows where you and I will end up? I'd stay forever if you' re down
You say you're over all the fake stuff, I see you're unsure rig ht now

Then it all comes out late
When you say you don't care how long it takes
You just wanna be loved, hey so do I, yeah
Real love, that's hard to find
It takes two hearts to break one
But even in the dark, three words might save us
You just wanna be loved, hey so do I
Real love, that's hard to find
