

Simon Says

Jacob Sartorius

There's a little devil in your light-blue eyes
Damn, they make it difficult to tell you no
So I hopscotch over every ice-cold lie
Messing up the message, baby, telephone

Had me on a string 'round your finger like it's ring-around-the-rose Colored lenses that you said you liked me best in
Now I don't believe what you tell me when you say that you're alone
Wish I didn't know, but I know

So you wanna play a game?
Running like a kid
You can't tell the truth, so girl I dare you to drop a name
'Cause I know what you did
Paper, scissors, shoot, you are always gonna lose it
Acting dumb, red rover, red rover
Ask me twenty-one, but don't ask to come over
So you wanna play a game?
Simon says, Simon says have a shitty day

We're getting older, when will you grow up?
I'm getting sober, you're getting wasted
Tears on my shoulder, they're getting colder
Bar's getting low, limbo in the basement

Had me on a string 'round your finger like it's ring-around-the-rose
Colored lenses that I wish I never owned
'Cause it's hard to take your words serious with a key in your nose
Wish I didn't know what I know

So you wanna play a game?
Running like a kid
You can't tell the truth, so girl I dare you to drop a name
'Cause I know what you did
Paper, scissors, shoot, you are always gonna lose it
Acting dumb, red rover, red rover
Ask me twenty-one, but don't ask to come over
So you wanna play a game?
Simon says, Simon says

Simon says get rid of my number like some baby teeth
Simon says run and tell your friends that I'm the enemy
Simon says hold your breath and maybe this would get to breathe
'Cause Simon says you're dead to me, yeah
Simon says get rid of my number like some baby teeth
Simon says run and tell your friends that I'm the enemy
Simon says hold your breath and maybe this would get to breathe
'Cause Simon says you're dead to me

So you wanna play a game?
Running like a kid
You can't tell the truth, so girl I dare you to drop a name
'Cause I know what you did
Paper, scissors, shoot, you are always gonna lose it
Acting dumb, red rover, red rover
Ask me twenty-one, but don't ask to come over
So you wanna play a game?

Simon says, Simon says have a shitty day
