

TOO LATE TO SAVE IT

Jacob Sartorius

Believe me when I say
Life gets complicated
I'd rather pass over the blame (aye)
Than be the bigger man and take my
Keys to the car and I'll head over like right away
Put the pedal to the floor 110 on the highway
I try to slide but you're never coming my way
Coming at me sideways
Time to say bye babe

I don't know if I could ever see you again
Saw you at the party you were kissing my friend
I never thought that this would be the way that it ends
Now it's too, late too late to save it

I'm hiding in the hills cause I'm paranoid as hell
Always stab me in the back then you say you wish me well
The loves all gone girl if you couldn't tell
Too late, too late to save it

Half of the time I'm out of my mind I wanna show up and just break shit
It's when I arrive and have a good time
Spilling some shit in your basement
Day drink, say things, don't mean
Lowkey blow things up
Caved in wake up on the pavement
Oh man now the whole things fucked

Got the keys to the car and I'll head over like right away
Put the pedal to the floor 110 on the highway
I try to slide but you're never coming my way
Coming at me sideways
Time to say bye babe

I don't know if I could ever see you again
Saw you at the party you were kissing my friend
I never thought that this would be the way that it ends
Now it's too late too late to save it

I'm hiding in the hills cause I'm paranoid as hell
Always stab me in the back then you say you wish me well
The loves all gone girl if you couldn't tell
Too late, too late to save it

It's too late, it's too late to save it
And sometimes it's hard to wanna face it
I'll play it cool and pretend that the loves gone
It's too it's too late I took my

Keys to the car just to be with you like right away
Put the pedal to the floor 110 on the highway
I try to slide but you're never coming my way
Coming at me sideways
Time to say bye babe

I don't know if I could ever see you again
Saw you at the party you were kissing my friend

I never thought that this would be the way that it ends
Now it's too late, too late to save it

I'm hiding in the hills cause I'm paranoid as hell
Always stab me in the back then you say you wish me well
The loves all gone girl if you couldn't tell
Too late too late to save it
