

WORTH IT

Jacob Sartorius

Why you leave me here? I've been on the ground like fuck this
I don't know but I wish I spent more of their budget
I don't know about life other times I love it
Other times I love

I'm drowning in these tears, I think I could fill a whole bucket
Panic attacks every time I'm at these functions
Make you laugh, that's out of love, no assumptions
I don't know, might crash for now buzzin'

Hesitate, hesitate
You know you could never stay (yeah)
Lonely nights I always seem to lay awake
Read my journal, get a tour through my mind
If I call you in the morning then you'll probably decline

I lost my moment tryna fuck around
You said that eventually we'd figure out
Someday after this you'll finally understand
The world isn't perfect
But I think that it's worth it to stay
My friends always ask me why I always say I love you
Cause you're the only people that I could run and talk to
Back then but now's now lost cause
The world isn't perfect
But I think that it's worth it to stay

Over you
At least that's what I say to feel bullet proof
Insecurity levels going through the roof
I just met this girl, she looks a lot like you
So that's why I always

Hesitate, hesitate
You know you could never stay (yeah)
Lonely nights I always seem to lay awake
Read my journal, get a tour through my mind
If I call you in the morning then you'll probably decline

I lost my moment tryna fuck around
You said that eventually we'd figure out
Someday after this you'll finally understand
The world isn't perfect
But I think that it's worth it to stay
My friends always ask me why I always say I love you
Cause you're the only people that I could run and talk to
Back then but now's now lost cause
The world isn't perfect
But I think that it's worth it to stay

Don't give no fucks for the day
Who gives a fuck what they say
I got high, bloodshot eyes
Up up up up and away
I don't like nothing these days
Hoping that this shit will change
All the times that we had

Feel like they're too far away

I lost my moment tryna fuck around
You said that eventually we'd figure out
Someday after this you'll finally understand
The world isn't perfect
But I think that it's worth it to stay
My friends always ask me why I always say I love you
Cause you're the only people that I could run and talk to
Back then but now's now lost cause
The world isn't perfect
But I think that it's worth it to stay
