

Changing

Jacob Whitesides

Is it possible
That the pain I feel right now makes me feel safe here?
I'm uncomfortable
But I'd rather be alone than just be fakin'

I don't know how to figure it out and I
Wanna jump, but I'm glued to the ground
Just waitin', waitin'
It's hard to sing when you can't hear a sound and it's Hard to fly when you're on the way down
Just shakin', shakin'

And I hate this
Perfectly alone and still so anxious
Drowning in the ocean of
A mind that thinks too much
And a heart that's gone untouched
I'm changing
But don't know who I'm changing to
Don't know who I'm changing to

It's impossible
To understand the pain of being broken
Am I responsible?
When asked if I'm okay, I just start chokin'

I don't know how to figure it out and I
Wanna jump, but I'm glued to the ground
Just waitin', waitin'
It's hard to sing when you can't hear a sound and it's
Hard to fly when you're on the way down
Just shakin', shakin'

And I hate this
Perfectly alone and still so anxious
Drowning in the ocean of
A mind that thinks too much
And a heart that's gone untouched
I'm changing
But don't know who I'm changing to, to
Mmm
To, to

And I hate this
Perfectly alone, I'm still so anxious
Drowning in the ocean of
A mind that thinks too much
And a heart that's gone untouched
I'm changing
But don't know who I'm changing to Changing to

Changing to, to
