

Girlfriend (Leave Me Alone)

Jacob Whitesides

Everytime I try to listen to my heart you got it on a string pull me right back to the start
Everyday I try to clean my mind if you are or you aren't mine you ain't acting right
You remember late last night yeah our last fight
Runnin' round with another guy
'Cause I refuse to sit theres thinkin' it's me while you sit theres leaving kisses on his check

I've been going off the deep end
You're acting like my girlfriend
But I'm not with you
Yeah I've been writtin' down the reason
My heart can't take this beating
What's it gonna take
For you to just
Leave leave leave me alone, yeah
Leave leave leave me alone, yeah
Leave leave leave leave me alone

In and out in and out of my life
You come and go like a thief in the night
Taking pieces of me with every new guy ya meet
And damn you sting like a bee
But now it's clear to see

I've been going off the deep end
You're acting like my girlfriend
But I'm not with you
Yeah I've been writtin' down the reason
My heart can't take this beating
What's it gonna take
For you to just
Leave leave leave me alone, yeah
Leave leave leave me alone, yeah
Leave leave leave leave me alone

Girlfriend, acting like my girlfriend
You're acting like my girlfriend
You're acting like my girl

You're acting like my girlfriend
You're acting like my girl

Cause I've been going off the deep end

But I'm not with you

My heart can't take this beating
What's it gonna take
For you to just
