

Why Can't We All Just Get Along

Jacob Whitesides

Why can't we all just get along

Hey you, the world is on fire
I'm so sick and so tired
Of this blood in the water, blood in the water
Words turn into explosions
I'm so up in emotion
I thought we were brothers, thought we were brothers

Love and forgiveness
Love and forgiveness
How we forget it
How we forget

Why can't we all just get along
Do we wanna be here ten years later
Singing the same sad song
It don't have to take our last breath
To admit that we're wrong
Why can't we all just get along

We blow in like a hurricane
We kill all the good
And we hurt one another, hurt one another
Don't take this life for granted
We need second chances
As hard as it is (Come one people now)

Why can't we all just get along
Do we wanna be here ten years later
Singing the same sad song
It don't have to take our last breath
To admit that we're wrong
Why can't we all just get along

I see a city where the haters go
I see a city we're all still talking
I see beautiful lights
That turns battlefields into paradise
I'll be the first one to lay down my gun
And I'll be here waiting for you to go
That can be peace and love can be found together
There's got to be common grounds

Why can't we all just get along
Do we wanna be here ten years later
Singing the same sad song
It don't have to take our last breath
To admit that we're wrong
Why can't we all just get along

Why can't we all just get along
Do we wanna be here ten years later
Singing the same sad song
It don't have to take our last breath
To admit that we're wrong

Why can't we all just get along
