

You Told Me So

Jacob Whitesides

I did a lot of running this week
I made it to the top of my mountain peak
I thought about you on the way
How you called out a warning
Oh how you warned me

Now I'm scared and alone
But I'm aware that there's no place like home

I been running and running but I don't know where to go
I've been chasing, replacing but I am still alone
What a mess, there's nothing left
I lost my heart and soul
You told me so
I should have listened when you told me so

When I look back from the mountain top
I saw all the places I should have stopped
I wish I never left you there
When you called out a warning
Oh how you warned me

I been running and running but I don't know where to go
I've been chasing, replacing but I am still alone
I lost my heart and soul
You told me so
I should have listened

You saw through all the dances I did through all your chances
And when I took advantage I could have given up
You even loved a fool who made a mess of you
What have I become?

I been running and running but I don't know where to go
I've been chasing, replacing but I still feel alone

I been running and running but I don't know where to go
I've been chasing, replacing but I still feel alone
I lost my heart and soul
I lost my heart and soul
And you told me so oh
You told me so
And when I ask for you the answer is no.
