

On The Way

Jacques

Wish I could take back some of the things that I say (Yeah, come on)

Ran up your score with all of the games that I play
Still in the midst of distractions, I know you're tired of hearin' "Sorry"

This all start to sound the same

Oh how I'd be a fool, to be the one to lose you, so, yeah

Pack your bag, bae the private jet's on the way

I was fightin' hard for your love, would be a fool to run away

I apologize if I broke your heart

I hope you never leave, we'll never grow apart

I thank you for your patience, all your time I've been wastin', uh

I'm only human and I deal with the consequence

I did you bad, I'm fuckin' with your confidence

Say you gon' leave, girl that don't make no fuckin' sense

Oh-oh-oh, oh-oh-oh (Oh)

I got a jet, 'bout to leave in the mornin'

Need you on it, I need you on it

When I hit it from the back, I had you runnin'

I got you runnin', I keep you runnin'

Hit the pussy, disappear for days

Leave you feelin' all type of ways

She get mad and we make up at my place

Oh-oh, oh

Pack your bag, bae the private jet's on the way (Way)

I was fightin' hard for your love, would be a fool to run away
(Run away)

I apologize if I broke your heart (Heart)

I hope you never leave, we'll never grow apart

I thank you for your patience, all your time I've been wastin', uh (Wastin')

I'm only human and I deal with the consequence (Woo, yeah, yeah)

I did you bad, I'm fuckin' with your confidence (Confidence)

Say you gon' leave, girl that don't make no fuckin' sense

Pack your bag, bae the private jet's on the way

I was fightin' hard for your love, would be a fool to run away

I apologize if I broke your heart

I hope you never leave, we'll never grow apart

I thank you for your patience, all your time that's been wastin',
