

What's Going On

Jacquees

TayTay made the beat
Ooh, ooh, ooh
Jacquees sang, yeah
Run it up
Lizzen, what up? (Ooh)

And you already know what's going on
Ain't gotta say too much
Do that shit you said on the phone
Take your time, don't rush, don't rush

Baby, take your hands, let 'em sit on my chest
Put it on this set, I'ma give you my best
Girl, put your lips right on my neck
Started with a kiss, now it's time to sex
I need that energy you showing in the text
No need for clothes, girl, leave your panties on the dresser
You're all I want, girl, would you mind if I get extra?

You can stay at the crib, I know it's late
It's late, wipe that make-up off your face
And I know it's way too long of a drive
With all that water dripping from your thighs

And you already know what's going on
Ain't gotta say too much
Do that shit you said on the phone
Take your time, don't rush, don't rush (Nah, Lizzen)

Maybe it's my tone that turn you on on this phone
Don't wanna prolong, is this the time that you want it?
Feeling kinda nervous, yeah I got you in your zone
Breathing getting heavy every time that we're alone
You say my voice addictive
So come and get a taste of what you missing
As is started, was obsession, pay attention
My body's talking, I suggest you listen

You can stay at the crib, I know it's late
You want me to stay but you don't have to fake
And I know it's way too long of a drive
With all this water dripping down my thighs

And you already know what's going on (Going on)
Ain't gotta say too much (Ain't gotta say too much)
Do that shit you said on the phone (On the phone)
Take your time, don't rush, don't rush

No, oh, oh
Nah, ah, ah
