

Avalanche

Jade Bird

Sun shines through the ice
I realize that I'm frozen
Stuck inside this moment in time
Crystallized in the life I have chosen

I am under an avalanche
And there's no one who can find me
I am under an avalanche
So send out a search party

Face to the sky
But it's just a sheet of white
And I open my eyes
'Cause I'm chokin'

Sun burns so bright
I feel like daylight
Though I'm buried tight
I'm still hopin'

I am under an avalanche
And there is no one who can find me
I am under an avalanche
So send out a search party

Hallelujah
Hallelujah
Hallelujah
Hallelujah

I am under an avalanche
And there's no one who can find me
I am under an avalanche
So send out a search party
