

I'm Getting Lost

Jade Bird

Don't go out too far on your own at night
You never know what kind of people you could find
Don't go crossing roads that you've never been down
Stay where the lights are bright, and the music is loud

Ooh, I'm getting lost tonight
And I don't really mind if it takes you ages
Ooh, you can waste all your time
Tryna find which line the train that I am facing is
Ooh, I'm getting lost tonight
Following the signs for wherever they'll be facing
Ooh, I'm getting lost tonight
Taking myself right away from where the pain is

Say what you want you can't convince me to cry
Stay with my bag, tall and my head held high
Be ready to run for my life at any moment
There is always a door to jump for that's closing

Ooh, I'm getting lost tonight
And I don't really mind if it takes you ages
You can waste all your time
Tryna find which line the train that I am taking is
Ooh, I'm getting lost tonight
Following the signs for wherever they'll be facing
Ooh, I'm getting lost tonight
Taking myself right away from where the pain is
Away from where the pain is

I'll take off to the station
Nothing but the clothes on my back
There are chances worth taking
I need to know what I'm living for
Get it all back on track

Ooh, I'm getting lost tonight
Taking myself right away from where the pain is
