

Coulda Fooled Me

Jade Eagleson

Thought this hole in the wall was a good place to hide Run up a tab to the ceiling tonight
But you and your friends made a mess of my plans the second you walked in Thought you'd be at your mom's, thought you'd still be a wreck Kinda like I am if you ain't noticed yet That you're the belle of the bar, I'm over here in the dark, girl, this don't make sense

That smile that you're smilin', like you ain't even tryin'
Sippin' on somethin' I know you didn't buy
You're over there actin' like goodbye never happened
Lookin' like little Ms. Life of the Party tonight
Well, if you're still goin' through it, I never woulda knew it, my eyes can't believe what they see If your world and your heart is falling apart, girl, you coulda
fooled me

Yeah, ain't you the girl from the other night Throwin' round "I love you"s with tears in your eyes?
Sayin', "What if we're crazy, and it ain't too late to turn it all around?"
Well look at you now

Smilin' like you ain't even tryin'
Sippin' on somethin' I know you didn't buy
You're over there actin' like goodbye never happened
Lookin' like little Ms. Life of the Party tonight
Well, if you're still goin' through it, I never woulda knew it,
my eyes can't believe what they see
If your world and your heart is falling apart, girl, you coulda
fooled me

Yeah, you coulda fooled me
Yeah, you coulda fooled me

That smile that you're smilin', like you ain't even tryin'
Sippin' on somethin' I know you didn't buy
You're over there actin' like goodbye never happened
Lookin' like little Ms. Life of the Party tonight
Well, if you're still goin' through it, I never woulda knew it,
my eyes can't believe what they see
If your world and your heart is falling apart, girl, you coulda
fooled me

If your world and your heart is falling apart, girl, you coulda
fooled me
