Whiskey Tonight

Jade Eagleson

Kick off these beaten up boots by the door
I can't wait to lift these old feet off the floor
And put on those records from George Jones to Strait
I've got a drink somewhere calling my name

So I call up my buddy, he says to be there in 20
Pack up a cooler with something you like

And I have been loyal to beers on ice
Might even sneak in a glass of wine
But this whole week has been hell
And I can already tell
That I'm drinking whiskey tonight
Whiskey tonight

Chasin' that sunset, wish this day would end
Cause when the night falls, that buzz can kick in
I look around, and it ain't hard to see
There's lots of folks out there, all just like me

Who don't mind that burn, or if it goes down real smooth
We know there's somethin' a cold one can't do

And I have been loyal to beers on ice
Might even sneak in a glass of wine
But this whole week has been hell
And I can already tell
That I'm drinking whiskey tonight
Whiskey tonight

I have been loyal to beers on ice
Might even sneak in a glass of wine
But this whole week has been hell
And I can already tell
That I'm drinking whiskey tonight
Whiskey tonight

Whiskey Tonight
Whiskey Tonight
Whiskey Tonight
