

Worth The Double

Jade Eagleson

He ain't worth the double you're drinking
Why not take a shot on me?

Saw those eyes coming through the door
Bluer than an ice cold can of Coors
That payback dress, painted on
I can tell somebody must've done you wrong
When you sat down
Said, "Whatever you're having, I'll have the same"
I said, "How about
We get to forgetting 'bout what's his name"

He ain't worth the double you're drinking
Leaving you single, what was he thinking?
Misery loves company
So why not take a shot on me?
If you're in this bar 'cause he broke your heart
Baby, it ain't hard to see
That he ain't worth the double you're drinking
Why not take a shot on me?

Your tequila glass keeps getting closer to mine
There's a green light glowing in your neon eyes
I'll next round betcha
Some one-two stepping
With a guy like me is what you need tonight

He ain't worth the double you're drinking
Leaving you single, what was he thinking?
Misery loves company
So why not take a shot on me?
If you're in this bar 'cause he broke your heart
Baby, it ain't hard to see
That he ain't worth the double you're drinking
Why not take a shot on me?

Take a shot, take a shot
Take a shot on me
Let's have a night, forget that guy
Baby, take a shot on me
Yeah, why not take a shot on me?

He ain't worth the double you're drinking
Leaving you single, what was he thinking?
Misery loves company
So why not take a shot on me?
If you're in this bar 'cause he broke your heart
Baby, it ain't hard to see
That he ain't worth the double you're drinking
Why not take a shot on me?

If he ain't worth the double you're drinking
Why not take a shot on me?
Why not take a shot on me?
Why not take a shot on me?
