

Pick A Fight

Jade LeMac

Come on, meet me in the backyard
Uh, I'll be waiting with my mouthgard
Uh, got my gloves up in my Goyard
If you're not tough, then why you acting so hard?
Mm, I know you want me, so come get me
Uh, I see you starting to get sweaty
Mm, don't be scared, just try to hit me
If you're talking shit, then why'd you try to kiss me?

See you standing there on the starting line
With a genuine fear in your eyes
Holding back some tears, trying not to hide
Honey, why did you pick a fight?
See you standing there on the starting line
With a genuine fear in your eyes
Holding back some tears, trying not to hide
Honey, why did you pick a fight?

Follow me into the bedroom
Uh, I'll slam the door right up against you
Uh, pass a note that reads "we're through"
Thinking I'd give in, baby, you're an imbecile
Swinging at me like a movie
Uh, don't think your arm's really improving
Uh, your punch is worse than your seducing
If you think you're hot, your ego needs some bruising

See you standing there on the starting line
With a genuine fear in your eyes
Holding back some tears, trying not to hide

Honey, why did you pick a fight?
See you standing there on the starting line
With a genuine fear in your eyes
Holding back some tears, trying not to hide
Honey, why did you pick a fight?

Are you sad I caught you getting close with all those guys?
Sitting on their lap and kissing them, what a surprise
I know I'm a girl, but I swear you still said you loved me
And you'd always say something like ("Jade, will you please f*ck me?")
Stupid f*cking dumbass, you're begging me just to come back
Stupid f*cking dumbass, can't believe I used to want that Stupid f*cking dumbass, I swear I wish you the best
Just kidding, you stupid f*cking dumbass

See you standing there on the starting line
With a genuine fear in your eyes
Holding back some tears, trying not to hide
Honey, why did you pick a fight?
See you standing there on the starting line
With a genuine fear in your eyes
Holding back some tears, trying not to hide
Honey, why did you pick a fight?

I'll be waiting with my mouthgard
Uh, got my gloves up in my Goyard

If you're not tough, then why you acting so hard?
