

Glitch

JADE

Being here with you is like a prison
How you keep on killing my ambition
Went from a defensive mechanism
To hijacking all my decisions
Only thing you know is demolition
You are not included in the vision
What's it gonna take for you to listen?

Why don't you
Leave, leave me alone
'Cause I
Need, need time to grow
But you
Keep, keep showing up
Uninvited

You're just a glitch
Get outta my head, get outta my fucking skin
You're telling me lies, telling me how it is
Sick of you talking to me like I'm your bitch
When I'm that bitch
You're just a
You're just a

Hating like a fan, it's an obsession
Always got me feeling like I'm less than
Focusing on every imperfection
Middle finger to my reflection, I
Wanna get off this ride
Wanna get control back of my life
This ain't right

Why don't you
Leave, leave me alone
'Cause I
Need, need time to grow
But you
Keep, keep showing up
Uninvited

You're just a glitch
Get outta my head, get outta my fucking skin
You're telling me lies, telling me how it is
Sick of you talking to me like I'm your bitch
When I'm that bitch
You're just a glitch
Get outta me head, get outta my fucking skin
I want you to leave, I want you to let me win
Sick of you talking to me like I'm your bitch
When I'm that bitch
You're just a
You're just a

Heart hurts
Chest burns
You're the worst part of me
Get off me

If I could
Then I would amputate you
