

Headache

JADE

When I'm waking you up
And I'm drunk
And I know you got work in the morning
Darling, I know, it's not fun
When I'm stuck in a mood
Take it out on you
And I know it's not cute, but you always seem to keep your cool

Inside your mind, I'm bumping
I know, I wind you up
I like to tell you one thing, then go and switch it up
My baby pull me closer, he whisper in my ear
He say, I love you so much
Even though you are such a

Headache
Like a drill inside your brain
Headache
'Cause I'm driving you insane
Most people couldn't tolerate this
I'm such a headache, but you love me anyway
Hey

Ooh, what am I like?
Can't take me anywhere
Ladders in tights, gotta carry me up the stairs
Like sugar and spice, I try to be nice
But then I take it there
Watch me take it there

Inside your mind, I'm bumping
I know, I wind you up
I like to tell you one thing, then go and switch it up
My baby pull me closer, he whisper in my ear
He say, I love you so much
Even though you are such a

Headache
Like a drill inside your brain
Headache
'Cause I'm driving you insane
Most people couldn't tolerate this
I'm such a headache, but you love me anyway, anyway

You still love me
But you
You still love me
You still love me

You still love me
You still love me
You still love me
You still love me
You still love me
You still love me
You still love me
You still love me
You still love me
You still love me
You still love me
