

Unconditional

JADE

Take a seat, this is your intervention
You're killing me with all your self-neglection
If I lose you now
Then I lose it all
If you let me down
Don't know who I'd call

You got me kicking, shaking and screaming for you
But nothing you could do would make me leave

Unconditional
I will hold your hand forever
Even if my heart explodes
Unconditional
I can't put you back together
But I'll always love you so

If only my love could be your medication
I could fix you so much better than your own prescription
If I lose you now
Then I lose it all
If you're going down
I can take the fall

Unconditional
I will hold your hand forever
Even if my heart explodes
Unconditional
I can't put you back together
But I'll always love you so

Unconditional
I'll always love you so

Unconditional
I will hold your hand forever
Even if my heart explodes
Unconditional
I can't put you back together
But I'll always love you so
