

Phoenix

Jaded Heart

I am standing here in violence
And I'm waiting for your soul to fall
Watching evil coming closer
I know my death is near
It whispers in my ears

And I see the door is locked to heaven
All in black
So this is hell
Lost and damned

It's been there for a thousand years
It hurts to realize
My prayers lost for none to hear
It's all your fault

Skyfalls
Pollutions
And A-Bombs
Come so naturally
Phoenix is rising up from the ashes
Once again

Forgotten by the Mighty
Admired by the Dead
Once that you're hunted till your death
As I watch the twilight
A raid of the gods
The sin must be paid for
Or drowned by the flood

Catch the horizon
That's no illusion
It strikes you from behind
Denies that you're alive
