

Remembering

Jaded Heart

Where on earth have you heard that I'm broken?
I can do anything God Almighty world I say
I'm here to stay
When you look in my eyes you can see what I'm thinking
I'm going back like a southbound train again my friend
I find my way
Remembering the time
Fooling around
Now it's lost somehow
We sang that sad old song
Tired and I'm torn
And so alive
Remembering the ones
We used to know
Where are they now?
Somewhere we were lost
Fading away before my eyes
All the loss in my life and I'm shaking
It's hard to take anymore even though my way has changed
I'm still the same
All the life within me defines what I'm giving

My heart stops but that's life and I'm gone but the legacy remains
Remembering the time
Fooling around
Now it's lost somehow
We sang that sad old song
Tired and I'm torn
And so alive
Remembering the ones
We used to know
Where are they now?
Somewhere we were lost
Fading away before my eyes
Remembering the ones
We used to know
Where are they now?
Somewhere we were lost
Remembering the time
Fooling around
Now it's lost somehow
We sang that sad old song
Tired and I'm torn
And so alive
Remembering the ones
We used to know
Where are they now?
Somewhere we were lost
Fading away before my eyes
