

Wasteland

Jaded Heart

The sun in the sky
It shines on the wasteland
And it's from the fire
It's from the wind
We are reborn

In silence we find
And deep within
Their chanting as one
Cries from miles away

We are children connected to light and soul
Spirits fly so high
Waste no more time or another day
Tonight we paint the sky

Ooh oh oh
We will never die
We go from dark to light
Ooh oh oh
You'll be forced to see
How we're spread just like a disease

No Gods can prevail
We're killing the hatred
And it's nothing but good
You understood what's at stake

The call of the young
And got nothing to fear
Enlightened and wise
Ascendancy in spree
