

With Your Eyes

Jaded Heart

Say I'm the only one for you baby
So why you talk like a stranger to me?
Maybe I'm wrong with my intuition
But I will find now somehow I won't see

Try to convince me that there is no
And you pretend it is the only truth
Is not we struggle or yell at each other
Is just nothing between me and you

And it's been so many times
Oh, that someone broke my heart in two
And it's been so many times
I got my fingers burned
I have learned

What about me?
I feel like crying
It ain't me
The one who is lying
Wanna be you
Wanna know what you're seeing
Just one day (Just one day)
To see what you're seeing
With your eyes
And look me up and down

You're sitting here right next to me baby
But it feels like you're million miles away
You sound so cold when you talk to me babe
Is it just my imagination that is controlling me?

And it's been so many times
Oh, that someone stole my heart away
And it's been so many times
I got my fingers burned
I have learned

What about me?
I feel like crying
It ain't me
The one who is lying
Wanna be you
Wanna see what you're seeing
Just one day (Just one day)
To see what you're seeing
With your eyes...
And look me up and down

And it's been so many times
I got my fingers burned
I have learned

What about me?
feel like crying
It ain't me
The one who is lying

Wanna be you
To see what you're seeing just one day
To see what your eyes can see
Wanna be you
Just one day
To see what you're seeing
With Your eyes
And look me up and down
