

Sunburnt

Jaden Smith

You should close after hours

Right through my [?]
She's a enemy
She's a enemy
She's a girl from my dreams
And she's the end of me
I know, I know

You should close after hours

Right through my [?]

She's been looking for the summer
Girl you sunburnt
You know I got your number
In case you wonder
Where we could be this summer

And as the summer thaws the frost
I'm reading a Holy book so all my brothers could walk
Intellectually defending a block
A revolution can be hard
Bruh but picking up that pen is a start
Tie dye the garage
Young hippy nigga at large
I put the dawg on box in the bars
From Africa to the stars
Since when is thinking different breaking the law
And when you Google this shit I just hope you're thinking about, yeah, yeah
I'm sure of us, trill life Chakras align the high horse
Die time, you gorgeous
Soon as your wave hit me, I capsize
The water hit my pineal gland, I was baptized
Babe you like the moon, I need a peek of the backside
I saw a future for us, staring into a cacti
Forbidden facts, hidden history and distorted maps
Like how we supporting that?
I threw the vision like I'm a quarterback
[?] wanna be on the spot
Yeah my driver high as fuck, smoking weed in the car
Girl your body OD and you know what you are
You want a piece but that [?]

She's been looking for the summer
Girl you're sunburnt
But you know I got your number
In case you wonder
Where we could be this summer

You should close after hours

Right through my [?]
Gone in the head, all these thoughts in my head, oh woah

Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
Ooh I love you, I love you

Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
Ooh I love you, I love you

And the flow go off (Woo)
Doctor Motorsnow, flake the bridge, I dove off
And jumping from the fakes
Yo tell me how all them chemicals taste?
I spit facts off
Ask the kids what they listen to in the car
Wait for the game to evolve, 'fore I lay on the charts
They had our ancestors caged in the dark
The kush break was at large
Kingdom of kush, the capstone in [?] in your DNA
But you still didn't get it
You got a essence that is ever present
