Jadu Heart

Post romance
The look in your eye says
More than friends
We won't let it die
I should go
But I know this might be the last time
I hold your hand

Post romance

(You went the other way)
(You went the other way)

Don't live alone
We can grow from the reeds
That cold of the rot

And the home that we never built
Lives in gold when we speak
And the the truth that we know
Will ascend, in your sleep
