

You
Take me for a ride
You
Pour into your eyes
You
Show me you're alright
You
Tell me where you're at

Show me if you dare
Burning bridges guide my way
To find you like a flare
I've done things I'll never say
But you've done things I swear
Tell me lies of what's inside
I find it in your stare
Find it in your stare

You
Take me for a ride
You
Pour into your eyes
You
Show me you're alright
You
Tell me where you're at

There's nothing to confess
Wake up in the morning
Feel the sunlight reach your lips
Shame is just a dirty word
For you have tried your best
You'll be fine, shine your light
Shine your light

Tell me where you're at
Tell me where you're at
