

hate LA

Jae Stephens

You've got a dangerous mind, you've got a cute little smile
You've got a party at 9, you get around, you get around
You've got a boy on the side, tellin' you sweet little lies
You're on a sweet little high, but you're comin' down, you're comin' down
And I hate it how you've made it complicated
Oh, can you face it?
'Cause you're claimin' that we made you jaded
We didn't make you this way, it's how you came here

But no one is here is beggin' you to stay
If you really hate LA
You can pack your shit and fucking move away
If you really hate LA
If you really wanna go, then you can go
You just wanted some attention, yeah, we know, yeah, we know
Baby, no one else is gonna take the blame
If you really hate LA

You came out here with a dream, typical homecoming queen
Nothing that we've never seen, you get around, you get around
It's a familiar thing, we're from a similar scene
But you were a different breed, look at you now, look at you now
And you let it get to your head
All the drama you're in ain't important
You say it's toxic, but you would never admit
That you love it too much to ignore it

But no one is here is beggin' you to stay
If you really hate LA
You can pack your shit and fucking move away
If you really hate LA
If you really wanna go, then you can go (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
You just wanted some attention, yeah, we know (Yeah, we know)
Baby, no one else is gonna take the blame
If you really hate LA

All on your phone, complainin' to nobody
Everyone knows, yeah, yeah
You're goin' live, sayin', "no bad vibes"
But that's just your type, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Yeah, yeah
So cut all the shit, pack your bags if you're with it
This ain't for everybody, yeah, yeah, yeah

But no one is here is beggin' you to stay
If you really hate LA
You can pack your shit and fucking move away
If you really hate LA
If you really wanna go, then you can go (Yeah, yeah, yeah)
You just wanted some attention, yeah, we know (Yeah, we know)
Baby, no one else is gonna take the blame
If you really hate LA
