

Which one should I choose today?
Switch 'em out like shoes today
I could cut 'em all loose, but hey—
I woke up in a real sexy mood today

I got a wandering eye
And they're all my type
Which one should I choose today?
Think it might be you today

Ooooh, couldn't pick just one if I tried — damn!

I got Keith, I keep back home
But his best friend is on my phone
Then there's Tommy, he got dough
I got so so so so
I got Chris, I met online
Sean ain't shit, but he so fine
I might be theirs, but they ain't mine
I got so so so so, so many...
HoesHoes
Hoes
I love him
I love him

I hope they don't fall in love
'Cause I don't want no drama
Last boy asked me what it was
Got taken off the roster

Ooooh, a bitch can't even make up her mind — damn!

I got Keith, I keep back home
But his best friend is on my phone
Then there's Tommy, he got dough
I got so so so so
I got Chris, I met online
Sean ain't shit, but he so fine
I might be theirs, but they ain't mine
I got so so so so, so many...
Hoes
Hoes
Hoes

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday — when I like to shop around
Thursday, Friday, Saturday — I let them take me out
Sunday night I need my space, so I stay in the house
Let 'em think I pick 'em — but I'm only picking petals out

I love him
I love him
I love him not
I love him
I love him
I love him not
I love him
I love him

I love him not
I love him
I love him

I love him
I love him
I love him not
I love him
I love him
I love him not
I love him
I love him
I love him not
I love him
I love him

I got Keith, I keep back home
But his best friend is on my phone
Then there's Tommy, he got dough
I got so so so so
I got Chris, I met online
Sean ain't shit, but he so fine
