

Lost (I Want You To Stay)

Jaehyun

It's been a long time since you're gone
Still filled up with the scent of your warmth
And staring at a blank wall
Drawing what's been natural
Gets way more vivid when I'm lost
Just wandering in the crowd where I'm standing
No matter how much it sways
Listening to the songs we used to relay

(And I know)
Nothing will change
Done counting down the reasons

Honestly, wanted to say
"Nobody else," but need you to stay
By any chance, it might've been too late, too late
And could've been obvious
No time to blame
All I want is having you in my day

The days are empty and without you
It's just me on my side
But when my arms are around you
There's nothing else to crave
Yeah, I know, yeah, I know, I want it this way
As the leaves fall down, I wish it not to snow

And I ain't want it to blow

Back in my days, was used to being all alone
The sky gets high, full of all the rays
No longer leaving shades
Hours passing by in a minute (Mhm)

But I need to say (Oh, I feel so lost)
"Nobody else," but need you to stay
By any chance, it might've been too late, too late
And could've been obvious
No time to blame
All I want is having you in my day

Mhm, mhm
Mhm, mhm
