Call of the Wild

Raised on leather, weaned on war A hell bent rebel overload The gleam of a spike, the stain of blood All the power contained in a raging flood

Conjure the power down below Control is loss of control Unleashed from the cage Out bursting with rage Overflowing force of desire Come heed the call Inside of us all Cast all inhibitions in the fire It's the call of the wild

Skin tight latex is my sin Crack of the whip, I love to sting Jump into the fire The whirlwind of the ring Survival of the fittest Who's the next to be crowned the king?
