

Automatic weapon

Jagged Edge

Oh-ho, oh-ho
It seems like every time we disagree
(Disa-, disagree, disagree)
You got more ammo to use, girl, against me
But you don't (No)
You put that thing under lock and key
That's not the way it should be (Not the way)
(D'Town tha Great)

When everything is good, she let me hold it
Don't keep it all put up in the holster
I'm touching on that lockbox, get it open
And in a moment, ooh, I got motion (Motion)
Can't even tell you why sometimes shit go left (Uh-uh)
But all I know is when she gets mad she
Take the key, put it up on the shelf
But I thought it was me that was selfish
If you give that thing to me, girl, that's selfless, yeah (Oh yeah)

You weaponize that thing and use it against me, girl
(Oh, you weaponize that, girl)
You jeopardize the peace that we got in our world, world
Girl, you know that's cruel (Girl, you know I paid my dues)
Let's rewind it back, back, and let's get back in the mood
Just don't hold it back, girl, just don't play me like a fool, oh no

She moves that body like it's an automatic weapon
(Like an automatic weapon)
When she get mad, she hold it back on everything
(Everything)
She moves that body like it's an automatic weapon
(An automatic weapon)
If she get mad, it's a bust, I can't get no love
(Oh yeah)
Do what I gotta do just so I can get some
(Oh, oh) (Oh, oh) (Oh, oh, oh oh)

Walking back in the hood, shots fired
I'm doing all I can for the love not to expire
I want the job like I'm legit someone for hire
'Cause when she mad, she put it away and I can't find it nowhere
But that won't stop me tryna get some (Get some)
Way she use her body just to keep me in check
She deserve my respect
It's working what the heck, Lord knows
She got me where she want me, yeah

You weaponize that thing and use it against me, girl
(Yeah)
You jeopardize the peace that we got in our world, world
(In our world)
Girl, you know that's cruel
(Ain't a fool, baby, girl, I know what I got in you, oh girl)
She use what she has just to get what she want, yeah, yeah

She moves that body like it's an automatic weapon
(Yeah, yeah)

When she get mad, she hold it back on everything
(Yeah, hey)
She moves that body like it's an automatic weapon
(Automatic weapon, yeah, yeah)
If she get mad, it's a bust, I can't get no love
(Can't get enough)
Do what I gotta do just so I can get some

So baby, oh (Oh, oh, oh)
Oh, oh yeah, yeah
