

Cafe

Jagged Edge

Don't play hard too long
Time for me to get up

Hey, bae
I don't know where this went bad
But I hate it
Can you meet me later on this evening?
Meet me at the café, I'll be there, be there
I'ma order you a latte, talk it over
And I'll just drink coffee real strong
We ain't leaving here 'til we figure out where we went wrong

Girl, I know that we've been going through some things, yeah
Just give me that chance to get it right, patch this thing on up, yeah
Better taken for granted all the love we got Since when love ain't enough? Since when love ain't enough?
And who said it's supposed to be perfect?
Everybody got problems at they home, I know I do
Gotta work on making this thing strong, yeah
I ain't got all the keys to it
I know we gon' figure it out

Hey, bae (Hey, baby)
I don't know where this went bad
(I don't know where we went wrong, no)
But I hate it (But I hate it)
Can you meet me later on this evening? (Later on this evening, baby)
Meet me at the café, I'll be there, be there (Girl, I'll be there waiting for you)
I'ma order you a latte, talk it over (Over)
And I'll just drink coffee real strong
We ain't leaving here 'til we figure out where we went wrong

Baby, you're a caramel mocha sweet thing
I ain't leaving 'til we figure this we thing
You're my favorite little option, out, in, locked doors
Let's get shut in for the weekend
You're my hot water, girl, I'm diving in the deep end
Baby, we can fix our troubled world
Rub you down with your favorite oil
Pull it out, every little trick I know
Wanna be back where we belong, baby, oh

Hey, bae
I don't know where this went bad
But I hate it
Can you meet me later on this evening?
Meet me at the café, I'll be there, be there
I'ma order you a latte, talk it over
And I'll just drink coffee real strong
