Love

Jagged Edge

Baby, we'll be the ones to set the example for our love
Everybody wanna know what the secret is
How you keep the thing going up the way y'all did
When you know she's the one, grab her, don't let her go
Not for nothing, not for nothing, oh, no, no
I don't wanna overstate again
But you gotta know that she's your friend
You gotta know that she'll get down no matter circumstances

So we'll be the ones, walking testimony on how far we've come
Couldn't plan on how far we've come
Couldn't plan on the way I fell or the way I feel

How 'bout this love
When I look at you girl I see love, love
How 'bout this love
When I look at you girl I see love
Such a blessing for my soul, I found a mate
I'm down on my knees now begging to stay
Love, when I look at you girl I see love, lo-ove, oh love

What you gon' do when the road get rough
What you gon' do when the tears get real
I'll be your shelter
'Cus I know the way it feels when you feel you're alone
And I can't let that happen to you, not ever again
I'm champion lover, I'm there 'till the end, girl
This the type of love that's gonna hold up against

Any type of thing that we can come up against

So we'll be the ones, walking testimony on how far we've come
Couldn't plan on how far we've come
Couldn't plan on the way I fell or the way I feel

How 'bout this love
When I look at you girl I see love, love
How 'bout this love
When I look at you girl I see love
Such a blessing for my soul, I found a mate
I'm down on my knees now begging to stay
Love, when I look at you girl I see love, lo-ove, oh love

No distractions, ain't no interrupting this
People say we wanna make 'em look at us
It's love, love, love
My glass half full, I'm such a f-n optimist
They don't like what we got, they're just some jealous-mist
It might get bad, it's gon' get better
We goin' down, we in this together
They can call it what they want, girl I call it love

How 'bout this love
When I look at you girl I see love, love
How 'bout this love
When I look at you girl I see love
Such a blessing for my soul, I found a mate
I'm down on my knees now begging to stay
Love, when I look at you girl I see love, lo-ove, oh love
