Lying

Jagged Edge

No one was keepin' us together
I just know we was arguin' forever
I thought we both wanna get it back but better
Try to get up on that road to forever
The last time I seen your face it was New Year's Eve
When you left you were switchin' up your number
By the time I end up wakin' from my slumber
I realize I would never see you never

We both fucked up but I would never leave you alone (Oh no)
And I played that role but now I know the worst I could do was let go

I'd be lying if I say that I don't miss her
You'd be trying me if you show me her picture
I'd be lying if I say I don't wanna go back
To the days when she held me down, had my back
I miss her, goddamn, I miss her
I miss her all the time

Reminisce on the love we had
Reminisce on the love we left (We left, we left)
Hate looking back on the love we messed up (We messed up, messed up)
And I know I played my part in it, girl, I fessed up (Fessed up, oh oh oh)
You were my Ginger in Casino
So how we got lost in the gangster charade
And now the hole is as deep as they go
Deep as a bottomless floor
Wise men would tell me I never should never say no
And I just wanna get it back one time

I'd be lying if I say that I don't miss her
You'd be trying me if you show me her picture
(Don't try me like that)
I'd be lying if I say I don't wanna go back (Oh yeah)
To the days when she held me down, had my back
I miss her, goddamn, I miss her
I miss her all the time

I'd be lying if I say that I don't miss her (I miss her)
You'd be trying me if you show me her picture (I miss her)
I'd be lying if I say I don't wanna go back
To the days when she held me down, had my back
I miss her, damn, I miss her

I'm on a mission to get back right with her
I'll give her whatever, I'll do whatever just to save love
(I'd give her everything, yes I would, I would, I would)
I'm on a mission to get back right with her
I'll give her whatever, I'll do whatever just to save love
Love to save, love to save, yeah, oh oh oh oh
I'd be lying
