Pretty Everything

Jagged Edge

She acts the same as the first day
Sexy as hell like the first day
Baby, don't change, don't change, not a little bitty thing
'Cause I love you the way you are
You always know what to say just to make my day
You always know what to wear when it's time to play
Oh oh, baby, we ain't never even had an argument
Never even heard you say, "Where the hell you been?"
Plus, I never even know what you thinkin'
Any minute, you might just get naked

I'm down, ooh yeah
Girl, I'm loving the way you keepin' me on my toes
I'm loving the way your body goes, your body goes
Things your body knows
I'm loving the way you feel inside, it's a realer side
Oh oh

(You got that) Girl, you got that energy that I need
(Girl, you got that energy, yeah) Sexy as hell
(You got that) Girl, you got that energy that I need
(That I need, yeah) You got pretty everything, everything
(Oh yeah) You got pretty everything, everything
(Pretty everything) You got pretty everything, everything
You got that energy that I need

It's not a game, it's not a mistake
She had her own place right off of Biscayne
But she moved to the A wit' ya boy
So we could shut up all the noise and all of the haters
'Cause they'll keep talkin' 'bout it
What do they know about us? Nada
When the only the thing that matters, that we cherish what we got
We got ourselves, we got this love
You what I want, you what I need
I'ma protect, I'ma provide
Lay down my life if that's what it be (Oh baby, yeah)
Oh oh, I don't even know what you thinkin'
Any minute you might just get naked

I'm down wit' it (I'm down and...)
Down, I'm loving the way you keepin' me on my toes
I'm loving the way your body goes, your body goes
Things your body knows
I'm loving the way you feel inside, it's a realer side
I love... (Ooh yeah)

(You got that) Girl, you got that energy that I need
(Yes you do, baby) Sexy as hell
(You got that) Girl, you got that energy that I need
(It's what I need, it's what I need) You got pretty everything, everything
(Every, every) You got pretty everything, everything
(Oh oh) You got pretty everything, everything
You got that energy that I need (Oh oh oh oh, ooh)

Girl, I need you with me, everything's so pretty (Girl, I need you with me, yes I do)

I could stare at you all day long
Girl, I need you with me, everything about you pretty
I could stare at you all day long
(Oh, stare at you all day long)
Girl, I need you with me, everything's so pretty
(Girl, I need you with me)
I could stare at you all day long
Girl, I need you with me, everything about you pretty
I could stare at you all day long
(Oh, stare at you all day long)
Girl, I need you with me, everything's so pretty
I could stare at you all day long (Oh, all day long)
Girl, I need you with me, everything about you pretty
I could stare at you all day long
