

Weaker

Jagged Edge

J.E., y'all
Yeah, y'all know me, I be playin' hard
Playin' hard, I be playin' hard
You make me weak like I ain't got no guard
Ain't got no guard, I ain't—
Hard, yeah

I'm just sayin', you don't pick up
Then I'ma have to pull up
There's something about your love that makes me weak
See, like when you get mad
I just happen to get stood up
There's something about your love that makes me weak

I know you wanted us to talk, I ain't had time that day
But I'ma keep it real, I got time for you today
Every time that you get mad, you take your love away
And all I know, when you not here, I'm weaker by the day
And I get weaker by the day, yeah

I'm so comfy with you now
You bring out the other side of me (You do)
You never gave me the runaround (Oh)
You always acted so trill with me, oh-woah, woah
And I'll be there when you wake up (You wake up, girl)
I ain't gonna hurt you or shake you up
No, no, oh

Ain't mean to throw you off (I didn't mean to)
Never held a relationship down (Oh)
So if you'll have me, girl, I'll be there
Tryna come back around (Oh, I'm just sayin' oh)

I'm just sayin', you don't pick up
Then I'ma have to pull up
There's something about your love that makes me weak (Something 'bout your love, lovin')
See, like when you get mad
I just happen to get stood up
There's something about your love that makes me weak (Your love makes me weak, girl, yeah)

I know you wanted us to talk, I ain't had time that day (Oh, woah)
But I'ma keep it real, I got time for you today
Every time that you get mad, you take your love away (Love away)
And all I know, when you not here, I'm weaker by the day
And I get weaker by the day, yeah

She be like gone, gone, gone with that bull
But we so on, on, on with the push and pull
It be like every day, every way
This thing gets crazier and crazier to me
All the while, I know you're the only thing I need
I'll give this thing to you, just sit back and let me lead, yeah

Ain't mean to throw you off (I ain't mean to throw you off)
Never held a relationship down (No)

So if you'll have me, girl, I'll be there (I'll be there)
Tryna come back around (Oh-woah-woah)

I'm just sayin', you don't pick up
Then I'ma have to pull up
There's something about your love that makes me weak
See, like when you get mad (Yeah)
I just happen to get stood up
There's something about your love that makes me weak (Ooh, girl, ooh, girl)

I know you wanted us to talk, I ain't had time that day (Yeah, yeah)
But I'ma keep it real, I got time for you today
Every time that you get mad, you take your love away (Took your love away)
And all I know, when you not here, I'm weaker by the day (Ooh, ooh, ooh)
And I get weaker by the day, yeah

To all my fellas that's listenin' out there
If you're nothing without her (Nothing without her)
Raise your voices, sing along with you
Say, "I'm nothing without her"
I'm nothing without her
I'm nothing without her
I'm nothing without her
I'm nothing without her
I'm nothing without her (Oh-woah)

I'm just sayin', you don't pick up
Then I'ma have to pull up (I'm gon' have to pull up, baby)
There's something about your love that makes me weak (See what you're doin', baby)
See, like when you get mad
I just happen to get stood up (Yeah)
There's something about your love that makes me weak (I'm on my way, babe)

I know you wanted us to talk, I ain't had time that day (Yeah)
But I'ma keep it real, I got time for you today
Every time that you get mad, you take your love away
And all I know, when you not here, I'm weaker by the day
And I get weaker by the day, yeah
(Yeah)
