

Who U Wit?

Jagged Edge

I heard it from your lips
Or I wouldn't even trip
Remember what you said
That he ain't what you wanted for yourself
Not no more
But when you in the mix
And he just starts to flip
He be out the door and you be on his tail
If you want that bad then, girl its cool
Just don't try to make me, be the fool
You don't owe me nothin'
Girl just go on and do what you do what you do

Who you wit girl
Who you wit
Whats up baby girl who u wit
I cant get down with this
Tell me is it me or him
He don't flaunt like I flaunt

It's ridiculous
We're still involved in this
When we first met you said
You wasn't plannin' on stickin' around
That was then
Is that ain't what you meant
You seemed intelligent
So I'm knowin' that you know this shit is foul
Act like its nothing, play it cool
But its tearing me apart cause , I want you
You can make it better, if you let me know

Whats up, whats up
