

Imagine A World

Jagwar Twin

Just imagine
Just imagine

Imagine a world full of wonder
What would it be like?
What kind of people are there?
It's all inside of your mind it's up to you to decide
Uh hu

Imagine a world full of wonder
It's easy to try
You can't get it wrong
Playing your note in a song
Written by you for your life
Uh hu

Imagine a world full of wonder
Where flowers could talk (oh hello!)
For hours and hours
And they would sing when it showers
But they would stop when you walk
Uh hu

Imagine a world full of wonder
Somewhere in the sky
Or in the back of your mind
Is there intelligent life?
Is there a God you designed? (Oh my)
Uh hu

Just imagine
Just imagine
Just imagine
Just imagine

Imagine a world full of wonder
It isn't hard to see
Just close your eyes
Imagine it in your mind
Picture where you want to be (Be)
Uh hu

Imagine a world full of wonder
Where money was magic
But it could make your life tragic
Depending on how you acted
You were the cause and reaction (who?)
Uh hu

Imagine a world full of wonder
Where you could do nothing
Yell at people driving your car
Get in fights at the bar
Who do you think you are? (Who do you think you are?)
Uh hu...

Imagine a world full of wonder

Where you could be a hero
How many people could you save
If you got out your own way
And went your own way?
Uh hu

Just imagine
Just imagine
Just imagine
Just imagine

Imagine a world full of wonder
You pick your parents when you start
They're perfect for your lesson
The struggle and the blessing
Reflections of who you are (It's not a phase mom!)
Uh hu

Imagine a world full of wonder
Where everything is brand new
Then people start to label you
And you turn on the cable news
And those thoughts take ahold of you
Uh hu

Imagine a world full of wonder
Where every religion was right
Blue-headed gods
Brahma, Muhammad, and OZ
Horus, the Buddha, and Christ
Uh hu

Imagine a world full of wonder
The Garden Of Eden (In-A-Gadda-Da-Vida)
Look inside you'll see it
You just gotta believe it
You just gotta conceive it
Uh hu

Just imagine
Just imagine
Just imagine
Just imagine

Just imagine (Just imagine, just imagine)

Imagine a world full of wonder
