

Shine

Jagwar Twin

When I rise to a brand new morning, I
Know the sun's gonna
Shine, shine down on me
Shine, shine down on me
When I rise to a brand new morning, I
Know the sun's gonna
Shine, shine down on me
Shine, shine down on me

Wake up, look at my phone, and read the news
It's bad, really bad, I mean really really really bad
Seems like the world is going crazy, getting out of hand
They run the house and rig the game to get the upperhand
Man, I wish that life was like a movie
Maybe one of the classics, I like those movies a lot
Don't understand why people doin' what they doin'
All of this violence is tragic 'cause we could all get along

So let's change the world, we could start today
Know that everything's gonna be okay
Move oceans and earth 'cause we got the faith
Know that everything's gonna be okay
So everywhere I go, I'm gonna shine, shine, shine
Yeah, anywhere I go, I'm gonna shine, shine, shine
So sing it if you know you're gonna shine, shine, shine
I was in the clouds, now the sun's coming out, singing

When I rise to a brand new morning, I
Know the sun's gonna
Shine, shine down on me
Shine, shine down on me
When I rise to a brand new morning, I
Know the sun's gonna
Shine, shine down on me
Shine, shine down on me

Sometimes it feels so hard to keep your ground
Feels like an earthquake under your feet, but you're in the sea so you're gonna drown
And everyone's against you from your family to your country
It's so hard to continue watching home runs while you bunting
Nothing can stop you from doing what you believe
When life was not a celebration, I had dreams and then I made 'em
Something that no teacher teaching could ever teach
We're all the same in every nation, Jenner of my generation

So let's change the world, we could start today
Know that everything's gonna be okay
Move oceans and earth 'cause we got the faith
Know that everything's gonna be okay
So everywhere I go, I'm gonna shine, shine, shine
Yeah, anywhere I go, I'm gonna shine, shine, shine
So sing it if you know you're gonna shine, shine, shine
I was in the clouds, now the sun's coming out, singing

When I rise to a brand new morning, I
Know the sun's gonna

Shine, shine down on me
Shine, shine down on me
When I rise to a brand new morning, I
Know the sun's gonna
Shine, shine down on me
Shine, shine down on me

When I rise to a brand new morning, I
Know the sun's gonna
Shine, shine down on me
Shine, shine down on me
