

Reflections

Jah Cure

Behind these prison walls
Doing my paces, doing my time
I am spending my restless nights
Visioning faces, oh they all crying, crying

Prison ah nuh bed a roses
The livity it makes me ball
I wish that Jah could come
And take us back in time

'Cause I swear that I can be a better man
Yes I swear, if only you could understand
The faith in me shall set me free, reflection
The faith in me shall set me free, reflection

Behind these metal bars to Jah, Jah I'm chanting
Pray for your love divine
I'm oh so sorry I am deeply I am hurting
The price ordained to be mine

Impossible to see the changes that I've made in my life
All they see is just the boy they left behind

And I swear that I can be a better man
Yes I swear, if only you could understand
The faith in me shall set me free, reflection
The faith in me shall set me free, reflection

Don't judge me wrong
'Cause now I am stronger than I was before
I was young and unwise
Didn't you hear my cry?

Impossible to see the change that I've made in my life
All they see is just the boy I left behind

'Cause I swear I can be a better man
'Cause I swear, if only you could understand
I swear I can be a better man, and I swear, I swear
The faith in me shall set me free, reflection
The faith in me shall set me free, reflection
The faith in me shall set me free, reflection
The faith in me shall set me free, reflection
