

Something Tells Me

Jaheim

Don't ask me how I know
Just wanna let you know (you know)

Something tells me there's something
You wanna tell me
Something you don't feel
You wanna say it
Something tells me there'll
Be no tomorrow
Feelings that we had is
Gonna be..woahhh hoo

Not once got she all curse me
The type of girl when i'm sick she nurse me
Treat me like a king are you hungry or thirsty
Must be out of my mind Lord have mercy
Some cup praise such good cup of bread
Leading to not quite the way that planned it
Is she breaking up in a matches granted
Baby wait before you go ohhh

Something tells me there's something
You wanna tell me (changing even try that we ooh woah)
Something you don't feel
(She's trying to sit around and see these people)
You wanna say it
Something tells me there'll be no tomorrow
(She's trying to do no damage to my ego)
Feelings that we had is
Gonna be..woahhh hoo
She makes his time to see other people

Close my eyes I can't see any vision
Some of the dude in my favorite position
Happy they laughed and they hugged
And they kissin'
enough that she talks and he's listening well
When I wake up sweating
Telling her coz I keep forgetting
No more you and I give me one more try

Baby wait before you go
Ohhhh

Something tells me there's something
You wanna tell me (Changing even try that we ooh woah)
Something you don't feel
(She's trying to sit around and see these people)
You wanna say it
Something tells me there'll
Be no tomorrow
(She's trying to do no damage to my ego)
Feelings that we had is
Gonna be..woahhh hoo
She makes his time to see other people

Hey girl wake up

Before you walk forward all the way girl

Why can't I kiss you
