

8 Simple Rules

JAHKOY

I been tryna talk it out
But you don't think we need to
With every thing we used to share
How'd we stop agreeing?
8 simple rules, I laid it down
Bed time for you, I lay it down
No sleep babe
I'm in Toronto

I'm looking for you again
I wonder what time we have
Is it even worth the spend?
I got money to blow
Money for blow
And no one can stop me
Back on the cold side
Dodging the trolls
I'm way too cocky girl
We used to make our way downtown
Now I don't ever see you around the city

I been tryna talk it out
But you don't think we need to
With every thing we used to share
How'd we stop agreeing?
8 simple rules, I laid it down
Bed time for you, I lay it down
No sleep babe
I'm in Toronto
