

3 Tattoos (Rishi's Interlude)

Jai Wolf

I've got three tattoos since I've last seen you
A new view that I've come home to
Seasons turn and I'm holding onto
"We're just fine"

Three tattoos since I've last seen you
A new view that I've come home to
All this time I've been starting to wonder
If I'm fine

I've got three tattoos since I've last seen you
A new view that I've come home to
Seasons turn and I'm holding onto
"We're just fine"

Three tattoos since I've last seen you
A new view that I've come home to
All this time I've been starting to wonder
If I'm fine

Ideally
I see you right by my side
I think we
I think we ran out of time, yeah
I'd be there
Be there right by your side, oh I know
Know we
Know we ran out of time
But I'll remember
