Star

Jain

Get it, get it up, get it on the ride
I'm the captain of my own life
Hide in front of my eyes, I'm gonna make you mad
Billi-billi-billionaire ideas, I got tons of them
Fear is on the rise and rules are by my side
Music goes world, world wide
I'm gonna make my style
I'm gonna make my style

You wanna be a star
But you don't know who you are
You wanna be a star
But you can't stand the light
You wanna be a star
But you don't know who you are
You wanna be a star
But you can't stand the light

Get it, get it up, get it on your life
Stand up or they'll take your rights
I don't need no MBA to know music's my DNA
'Cause every time I feel okay is when you look the other way
Stop a minute, mutation is coming on
Let's get some fierce on, put a big beat on
On my way to redemption, my only way's creation
On my way to salvation, my own revolution
My own revolution

You wanna be a star
But you don't know who you are
You wanna be a star
But you can't stand the light
You wanna be a star
But you don't know who you are
You wanna be a star
But you can't stand the light

Ego goes right into the flow
I made my way to feel brave not to feel save
'Cause my mojo stays right into the flow
I made my place out of stress out of the rest
Break, I wanna break the moon
I feel misunderstood, I don't want any rules, oh
Break, I wanna break the moon
I feel misunderstood, I don't want any rules

You wanna be a star
But you don't know who you are
You wanna be a star
But you can't stand the light
You wanna be a star
But you don't know who you are
You wanna be a star
But you can't stand the light
