

You Can Blame Me

Jain

It's too late for me to sleep
I can't stop thinking
Because of you I've smoked all my cigarettes
Looking at the stars in the middle of this dark street
I can feel my soul hurting me,
You are the one responsible...

You can blame me, you can even be sorry
I feel no doubt about me
You can feel sad, you can even yell at me
You're the one who cheated on me
You can blame me, you can even be sorry
I feel no doubt about me
You can feel sad, you can even yell at me
You're the one who cheated on me

Last time I saw you in this room
I felt so bad
You looked at me like I was your mummy
Running away, need to forget what I've just seen all my body was shaking
I loved you so, I loved you so much

You can blame me, you can even be sorry
I feel no doubt about me
You can feel sad, you can even yell at me
You're the one who cheated on me
You can blame me, you can even be sorry
I feel no doubt about me
You can feel sad, you can even yell at me
You're the one who cheated on me

After a long time I began to forget you
Now I can be myself again.

You can blame me, you can even be sorry
I feel no doubt about me
You can feel sad, you can even yell at me
You're the one who cheated on me
You can blame me, you can even be sorry
I feel no doubt about me
You can feel sad, you can even yell at me
You're the one who cheated on me
