

Creeper

Jakalope

Come to me
Baby
Follow my lead
I've a confession to make
It's always been this way

Oh I'm playing you for a fool
You fell for every broken rule
I'm doing what I owe to you
It's been a long time coming
And I'm coming for you

While I
Silently I scream
Inside I
Barely breathe
Silently I scream

Reflection of the soul
It'll never be the same
Less less than jaded, I
Still
Still I've changed

Do you feel
Naive
Did you make me believe
Were you
Decieved
Oh you fell right on your knees

Oh I'm playing you for a fool
You fell for every broken rule
I'm doing what I owe to you
It's been a long time coming
And I'm coming for you

While I
Silently I scream
Inside I
Barely breathe
Silently I scream

Reflection of the soul
It'll never be the same
Less less than jaded, but Still
Still I
I've changed

You've gotta crawl away now
No way I'll let you stay
You've got it goin on
I don't want to see your face

It's taken all this time
Before

I realized that I
Should go
Because I told you so I
Could let it go
Without a fight
It might not be right

Reflection of the soul
It'll never be the same
Less less than jaded, but
Still
Still I
I've changed

You've gotta crawl away now
No way I'll let you stay
You've got it goin
I don't want to see your face [x3]
