

Dance Alone

Jake Banfield

It wasn't easy watching you walk out that door
You got a bottle of Moscato on your drawer
While your picture's on mine
Yeah your picture's on mine
I swear I lose it everytime you walk away
'Cause everything that I've said just goes to shame
I can't take it no more
I can't take it no more

And I tried, I tried to tell you everything
And I lied, I lied just to get you to stay

Now I dance alone with no one to hold
Prolly wrapped up in his arms while I'm on my own
So I dance alone wondering why'd you go
Guess we'll find out someday when it's too late I suppose
So I'll just dance alone

Remember when you said that you'd be here for life
I'm reminiscing 'bout the things I can't get right
I can't take it no more
I can't take it no more
She told me everything was gonna be just fine
And then she packed up all her bags and left my life
She can't take it no more
Yeah she walked out the door

And I tried, I tried to tell you everything
Watched her cry, knowing it'll never be the same

Now I dance alone with no one to hold
Prolly wrapped up in his arms while I'm on my own
So I dance alone wondering why'd you go
Guess we'll find out someday when it's too late I suppose
So I'll just dance alone
Yeah I'll just dance alone

Now I dance alone with no one to hold
Prolly wrapped up in his arms while I'm on my own
So I dance alone wondering why'd you go
Guess we'll find out someday when it's too late I suppose
So I'll just dance alone
